

Whitegrove Football Club

Code of Conduct

Spectators

Whitegrove Football club endorses the FA Respect Code of Conduct in all aspects of football for players, coaches, managers, parents and spectators. Each of us can expect and are responsible for promoting high standards of behaviour in the club, during training sessions and games.

Your children play football for enjoyment. It's a great opportunity to develop skills, combine exercise with fun and teamwork.

Consider how you promote the behaviour we expect from our players. Help us by playing your part in supporting our Code of Conduct.

- Always promote a fair, fun playing environment.
- Applaud effort and good play in addition to success.
- Respect and do not question the Referees decision
- Team selection rests solely with the team manager, participation in any Whitegrove FC activity is at your own risk and subscriptions are non-refundable.
- Encourage and promote respect within the team, to their coaches, match officials and opponents.
- Do not tolerate or use offensive, insulting, intimidating or abusive language or behaviour.
- Report any concerns to a club official.
- Be positive
- Remain behind the Respect lines at all matches
- Communicate to managers as soon as possible if your child is to be absent/unavailable for any match or training session.
- Remember the club maintains a non-smoking policy
- Ensure that any guests who join you at a match or training abide by this code of conduct

I confirm that I have read and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct:
